IN THE MATTER OF

LOHÈ ISSA KONATE

V.

BURKINA FASO

APPLICATION № 004/2013

JOINT DISSENTING OPINION OF JUSTICES

RAMADHANI, TAMBALA AND THOMPSON

1. We have had the privilege of reading the Order of Provisional Measures in draft. We are however having great difficulty agreeing with the reasoning of the majority for refusing the first request by the Applicant, that is, "his immediate release". Surely the Applicant is not saying that he be released without more. He is asking that he be released provisionally pending the determination of his Application before this Court.
2. There is no reason why this cannot be done, especially when the Respondent that has been served with the Application which incorporates the request for provisional measures has not raised any objection.
3. The granting of this leg of the request for provisional measure will in no way touch or prejudice the substantive application. If the Application is refused the Applicant will simply be sent back to jail to complete his sentence.

4. Failure to grant this leg of the application will cause irreparable harm. Admittedly, every case has to be judged on its own merits, but generally it can be said that personal freedom cannot be compensated by monetary damages. In the present case, the Applicant's release from prison will aid, to a great extent, his request for medication and healthcare

Justice Augustino S. L. Ramadhani

Justice Duncan Tambala

Justice Elsie N. Thompson
